

Q (The Court) Is it furnished?

A Partly. The downstairs is furnished.

Q What would you make an estimate of the value of the furniture in the house?

A Not too much. I don't think it would be over $300.

(Mr. Bowers)
Q Do you know anything about any joint accounts that your mother and her late husband had?

A Well, the bank - the money in the bank was joint, and the property.

Q At your request did I inquire of all the banks in the community out there?

A Yes.

Q And the only bank I have ascertained any property, if the Court please, is this letter from the Woodsboro Savings Bank?

THE COURT: What does it say?

MR. BOWERS: It says checking account in the name of Charles G. Bowers and Alice O. Bowers, his wife, with a balance of $572.45. They have a savings account in the name of Charles G. Bowers and Alice O. Bowers, his wife, with a balance of $2,037.50. And they have a safe deposit box No. 14 in their joint names. I have the keys for that. I don't know the amount that may be in the lock box. We have heard all kind of rumors about certain amounts and certain money buried and all that kind of stuff.

THE COURT: But you have not been in the safe deposit box?

MR. BOWERS: No, I didn't have the authority to go. I do have the keys.
